

Fairview Developmental Center Specific Plan – Zoning Code Amendments

An amendment to Section 13-20 of Title 13, Chapter II “Zoning Districts Established,” of the Zoning Code is hereby amended to remove subsection (t):

“[...]

~~(t) Institutional and Recreational Multi-Use District. This district is intended to allow the integration of a variety of land uses and intensities. This zoning district category includes uses which are low to moderate in density and intensity and urban in character. The multi-use center designation is applicable only to the Fairview Development Center property at 2501 Harbor Boulevard.”~~

An amendment to Section 13-28, Subsection (g), of Title 13, Chapter III “Planning Applications” is hereby amended where ~~striktthrough~~ text denotes text being removed, and underlined text denotes text being added:

“[...]

(g) Master plan. Prior to development in the planned development (PD), town center (TC), shopping center (C1-S), mixed-use overlay (MU), and all types of institutional and recreational (I&R, and I&R-S, and I&R-MLT) zoning districts, a master plan is required. Preliminary master plans are required in the TC and ~~I&R-MLT~~ zone, are optional in PD and MU zones, and are not required in C1-S, I&R-S, and I&R zones.

[...]

(3) Minor amendments.

- a. Minor amendments to existing master plans in planned development zones are subject to section 13-56, master plan required.
- b. Minor amendments to existing master plans in the TC, C1-S, MU, I & R, and I & R-S, and I & R-MLT zones may be approved by development review if the planning division finds that the proposed construction does not materially affect required open space, floor area ratio, and parking requirements specified in the approved master plan. Furthermore, if the minor amendment results in an overall building square footage that exceeds the maximum building square footage allowed by the approved master plan, the planning division must find that the minor amendment is consistent with the floor area ratio and trip budget standards established by the general plan, as applicable.
