Good afternoon,

I am reaching out to agencies to find out if they are using Draft One Solutions Program for dictation of police reporting. If your agency is using this program, can someone get back to me? I have a few questions regarding the pros and cons of the program and if the use of the program is of a benefit for the officers and has it led to officers being able to go back to patrol faster and if police reports are being generated faster.

If your agency is not using Draft One, is there a reason why.

Thank you for your time.

Best
