Goodmorning Captain White and Andrea,

My name is Sgt. Ramesh Shangaran, and I work for SFPD with Lt. Kirk Yin. We wanted to thank you again and your team for providing valuable information regarding Axon Records. We shared our interview findings with our Chief, and he was very impressed regarding our plan to pivot to Axon.

On a slightly different topic, our department is now planning on piloting Axon DraftOne.

Do you have any materials that you can share such as departmental policies and training materials? Similarly, do you have any documentation or suggestions from your District Attorney on how best to move forward with DraftOne-generated arrests? We're just beginning our test phase and would appreciate any insight you can share.

Greetings Lt. Sanchez,

I hope you are doing well. My name is Ramesh Shangaran and I am currently assigned to the Technology division, assisting our department become NIBRS compliant. We have been in touch with several local agencies and we were informed that your department may have been implementing the DraftOne by one of your Santa Clara Sheriff's colleagues.

Our department is also planning on piloting Axon DraftOne.

We were wondering if you have any materials that you can share such as departmental policies and training materials? Similarly, do you have any documentation or suggestions from your District Attorney on how best to move forward with DraftOne-generated arrests? We're just beginning our test phase and would appreciate any insight you can share.

Thank you for your assistance.
