Proprietary Information

It is the City's opinion that release of the requested information may implicate the proprietary interests of TASER International, Inc. The City has notified TASER International, Inc. of the request for information. Until TASER International, Inc. has had an opportunity to raise any objections it may have to the release of the requested information, the City would not release this information to the requestor.

The City urges that in accordance with the Texas Public Information Act, the City is not waiving any claims of confidentiality or exemption to disclosure because of the required submission of the records under the Act.

Very truly yours,
