Re: Request for Information from the City of Midland

Dear Mr. Cassano,

The Office of the Attorney General of Texas has issued opinion number OR2017-11183 in response to the City of Midland's request for an opinion regarding your public information request of March 08, 2017. Enclosed please find the information which the Attorney General ruled should be released under the Texas Public Information Act.

The City of Midland is in possession of additional records that are not enclosed here because they are protected by copyright. The City must comply with the copyright law and is not required to furnish a copy of a record that is copyrighted. You may inspect the copyrighted record in person at the City Attorney's Office, 300 N. Loraine, Ste. 320, Midland, Texas 79701. If you wish to inspect the copyrighted record, please call our office to schedule a time to do so.

Please be aware that during your inspection, no employees, agents, or servants of the City of Midland will assist you in making copies of these records, and you will not be permitted to use City equipment to make a copy of these records. If you make a copy of these records during your inspection, you will be doing so unassisted by the City, and you will assume the duty of compliance with the copyright law and the risk of a copyright infringement suit.
