Re: City of Fort Worth Public Information Request No. W069672 from Jay Cassano
Request for All Records Pertaining to Axon Citizen

Dear Axon Enterprise:

We have received a formal request to inspect or copy some of our files. A copy of the request for information is enclosed. The requested files include all records pertaining to Axon Citizen. The Office of the Attorney General is reviewing this matter, and will issue a decision on whether Texas law requires us to all records pertaining to Axon Citizen. Generally, the Public Information Act (the "Act") requires the release of requested information, but there are exceptions. As described below, you have the right to object to the release of all records pertaining to Axon Citizen by submitting written arguments to the Attorney General that one or more exceptions apply. You are not required to submit arguments to the Attorney General, but if you decide not to submit arguments, the Office of the Attorney General will presume that you have no interest in withholding all records pertaining to Axon Citizen from disclosure. In other words, if you fail to take timely action, the Attorney General will more than likely rule that all records pertaining to Axon Citizen must be released to the public. If you decide to submit arguments, you must do so not later than the tenth business day after the date you receive this notice.

If you submit arguments to the Attorney General, you must:

1. identify the legal exceptions that apply,
2. identify the specific parts of each document that are covered by each exception, and
3. explain why each exception applies.

Gov't Code § 552.305(d). A claim that an exception applies without further explanation will not suffice. Attorney General Opinion H-436 (1974). You may contact this office to review the information at issue in order to make your arguments. We will provide the Attorney General with a copy of the request for information and a copy of the requested information, along with other material required by the Act. The Attorney General is generally required to issue a decision within 45 business days.

Please send your written comments to the Office of the Attorney General at the following address:

In addition, you are required to provide the requestor with a copy of your communication to the Office of the Attorney General. Gov't Code § 552.305(e). You may redact the requestor's copy of your communication to the extent it contains the substance of the requested information. Gov't Code § 552.305(e).

Commonly Raised Exceptions

In order for a governmental body to withhold requested information, specific tests or factors for the applicability of a claimed exception must be met. Failure to meet these tests may result in the release of requested information. We have listed the most commonly claimed exceptions in the Government Code concerning proprietary information and the leading cases or decisions discussing them. This listing is not intended to limit any exceptions or statutes you may raise.
