Captain Gossard,

I just watched the marketing video for Draft One and loved seeing you in it! And I realized it feels like a long time all of a sudden... I hope all is well with you!

I'd love to catch up whenever you have time. We're working on revamping our Redaction product, and would be great get your perspective and selfishly see if you have any interest in getting more involved in the project.

Let me know what date/time works best, and I'll make it happen. Looking forward to it!

Erin
